DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1966, do gratefully dedicate the WHITE CAPS to Mrs. Nell Davis, in recognition of the interest she has shown in this class throughout a long, hard year. For a better insight into the true spirit of nursing and support above and beyond the call of duty, we thank you.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We would like the graduating class to hereby declare this their last will and testament.

DONNA BRIGGS, wills her darkest lipstick to the most vivacious students and her phone priority following classes.

DANA CHAMBERS, her knowledge of "chamber-pots"to those not in the know.

CATHERINE CHARNOCK, her love for C. S. to those desiring flat feet.

JO SUE DelGUERCIO, her ability to take notes in class with one eye closed.

PENNY FIELDS, her ability for getting in on time, REPEATEDLY.

VIVIAN MARRINER, her love for food to any 'two' students.

LOIS MARSH, her ability to rise before the sun, but not as brightly (until the second cup of coffee).

WILLIE ANNA MEARS, her 'sex box' for evening hypnosis during study hours.

ROSE MILLER, her knowledge of bathing and doing laundry in the bathtub - together???

CORA SUE SCOTT, wills her incessant talking (in class); take your "batman" imitations!

ANN STUBBS, wills her membership in the Book of the Month Club, to the most studious.

ANNETTE THORNTON, her handwriting code to the instructors and her "pranks"to enliven the study hours.

BARBARA WOLF, her "Songs for Showering" and her hands to anyone wishing to talk.

GRADUATES, please! take your pale lipsticks, pierced ears and love of "monthly assignment calculations".

The Instructors

CLASS PROPHECY

Through the "magic crystal ball" we can see the year 1976. Look, there goes Ann Stubbs on a "people train" for the first time. She is on her way to join the class for a reunion at the annual L.P.N.Va. convention. It seems the entire class has arrived at the hotel.

Barbara Wolf is having difficulty getting registered, as the registrar is a male L. P. N. He can't understand her with her back turned.

Following the evening business session, there is a meeting in Penny Fields' room. It seems she has adjusted well to staying in one room ever since her class days. It grows on you. The conversation is enlightening with tales of long ago. There is a hush as Jo Sue finally makes phone connections. Then in the doorway walks Willie Anna in her ball-gown (or is it a nightie? or a tutu?). Can you feature her doing a ballet?

It seems no one has seen Donna Briggs since her last trip (5th) to the corner Waffle Shop. Cora Sue is letting-her-hair-down with "gusto". Seems she has little opportunity to talk at home. (Only six children). Vivian and Catherine have departed to seek adventure. In the hallways??? Oh, well!!! you can always hang uniforms from the ceilings.

The night of the banquet arrives and the outstanding speaker is Lois Marsh. Seems she has established a new record for 3-11 duty,for the past ten years. The only announcement from the floor sounds like,"Has anyone seen a pipe stand?" A WHAT?? At least Rose has made the supreme effort.

The entertainment is a lovely piano rendition by Dana Chambers. Everyone is so relieved as it will give them the opportunity to "catnap" and dream of all good things for the years to come.

Best All Around Student

Mrs. Lois Marsh was chosen the Best All Around Student by her classmates of 1966. She met the qualifications by having a sincere interest in our class activities, classmates, and by her scholastic achievments. We have appreciated her help and we thank her.

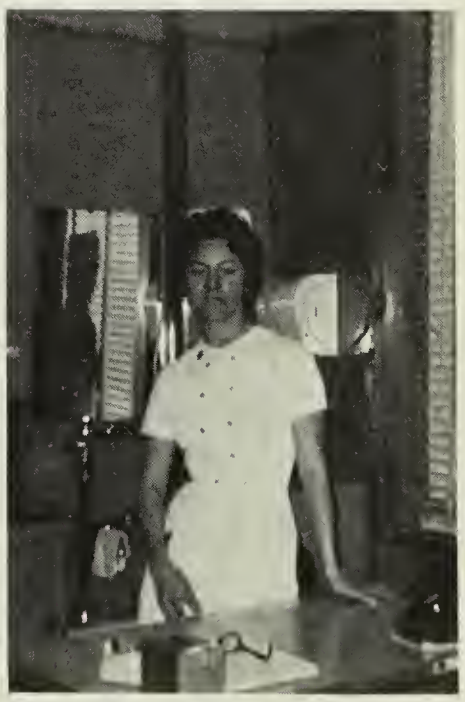
AROUND THE CLOCK



Moments to Remember

Poor George.

Three prancing, dancing

direct our shooting

wrong war in the wrong place

safely playing

Like fun!

How do people adjust?

"Be careful!

"How and why did we get into this?

How's that?

haze of unutterable bliss

Why me?

they each have about 20

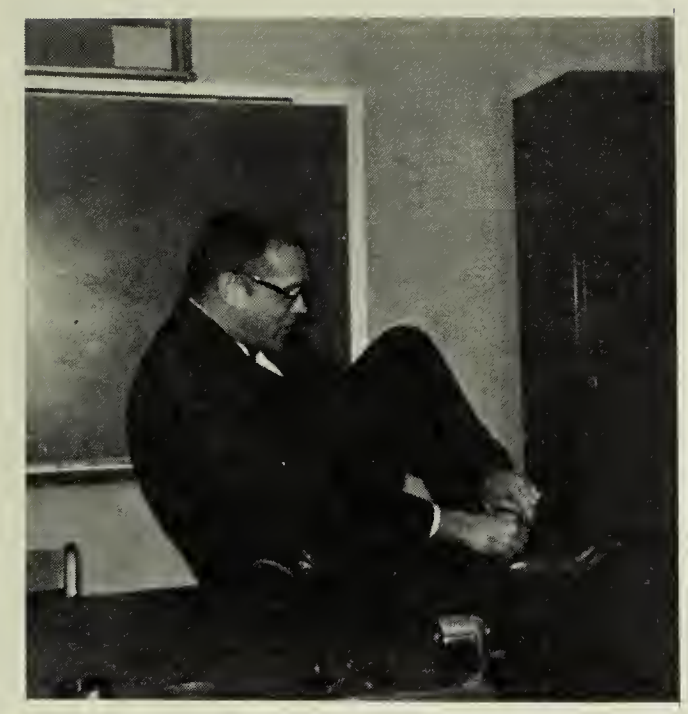
"built, sold and serviced

I was never tardy

"Huh, now what's this?"

the moment you leave home

There's more to come.



"Well, here goes nothing!"

Aren't you ashamed?

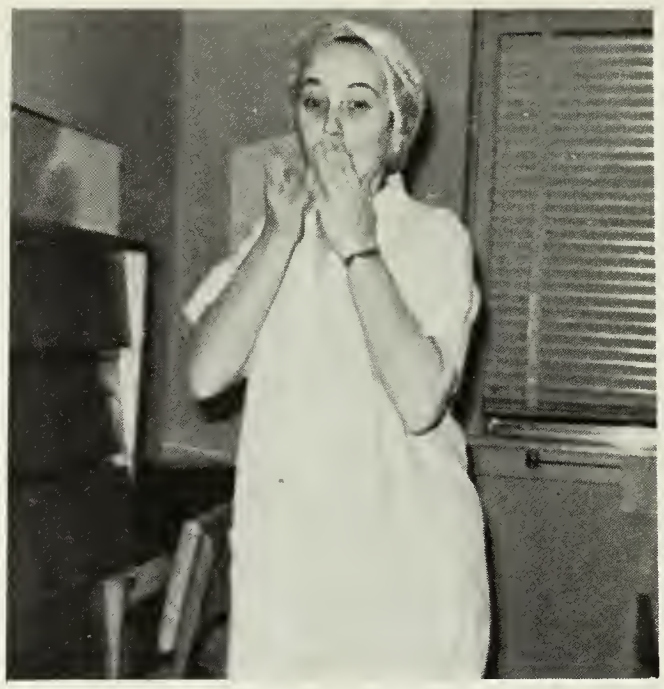
But I'm so tired.

friendly and fun loving.

Girls vowed to be nurses.

I'm not afraid.

Action!"



guard my privacy

people don't understand

I could hardly wait

We get along very well

we are all in this fight together

WELCOME TO OUR ANNUAL WILD PONY ROUNDUP

Chincoteague boasts one of the finest and oldest volunteer fire companies on the East Coast. The firemen are sponsors of the nationally famous Wild Pony Roundup and Pony Swim across the channel from Assateague Island which is held each year on the last Wednesday of July. The following day the ponies are sold at public auction.

The Pony Auction is the highlight of the fun-filled Summer Carnival which is held during the last two weeks of July each year. People from virtually every state visit the island resort at this time. Free entertainment, coupled with exciting midway rides, spell fun!! And there are those delicious CHINCOTEAGUE oyster sandwiches.
